

K-Love is a positive radio station for my children and myself to listen to. If K-Love were not on the air, I wouldn't have a station that I would like to listen to in my area, because there are no other contemporary stations in our area. It is in the public interest that K-Love stay on the air so children and adults have a positive source of entertainment.